5. Formation of integrity club to promote integrity, honesty, ethical conduct and to highlight the importance of integrity in personal and academic life.

In conclusion, the observance of Vigilance Awareness Week 2024 highlighted the importance of fostering a culture of integrity, transparency and accountability within our institution. Through these various activities we have tried to reinforce our commitment to ethical practices and strengthen awareness among students. These initiatives not only serve as a reminder of our responsibilities but also motivate students to remain vigilant against corruption.

Rekindle -2024 DPSN Alumni Meet

Delhi Public School, Numaligarh organized its first Alumni Meet on 5th October, 2024. The Meet was attended by fifty Alumni from the batches of 2004 till date, bringing together former students from various batches to reconnect with their alma mater. It was a great pleasure to learn of their accomplishments in their professional lives. This event marked a memorable occasion where past students, teachers, and staff came together to celebrate the bonds they share with their institution. The meet aimed to strengthen the ties between alumni and the school, fostering a sense of pride and belongingness. With an array of activities planned, including speeches, cultural performances, and networking sessions, the event provided a perfect platform for the alumni to share their experiences and contribute to the school's continued growth and success.

The Alumni Meet was a splendid event, filled with reconnections and cherished memories. The day began with the arrival of delegates and registration, smoothly managed and followed by a welcoming session of Tea and Snacks, allowing everyone to mingle. The formal proceedings started with heartfelt words of welcome. This was gracefully followed by the Lighting of the Lamp and Invocation with the Orchestra, setting an auspicious tone for the day's events. The Felicitation of Guests paid tribute to our distinguished attendees.

The keynote address by honourable Principal Mr. U.C. Harbola was inspiring, highlighting the achievements and aspirations of the school. An engaging School Audio Visual Presentation brought back memories and showcased the school's journey. Cultural performances were a highlight, starting with the mesmerizing Sattriya and Bhortal Nritya. The School Choir Presentation by students added a melodious touch, followed by a vibrant dance performance on the famous song 'Hai Junoon' by IX and X students, which energized the room.

Fun and Engaging Games for Alumni kept the spirits high, leading into a Bollywood dance performance by Class XI students, simply titled Bollywood- Through the Ages. The boarders added a vibrant touch to the Alumni Meet by performing an energetic dance medley, seamlessly blending various folk styles, which captivated the audience.

The 'Bihu Dance' performance showcased our pride and the rich cultural heritage of Assam. Thereafter, the Open Mic allowed alumni to share their cherished stories, adding a personal touch to the event. The speech by the Chief Guest Shri Girish Kumar Bora, Director Technical, NRL was both motivational and reflective. The Alumni Meet was also graced by Dr. Kajal Saikia, Chief General Manager, HR and Legal Numaligarh Refinery Limited and Pro-Vice Chairman of Delhi Public School, Numaligarh, several distinguished delegates from Numaligarh Refinery Limited and CISF making the event even more memorable.

The day continued with Open Interaction and Networking sessions, visits to the Junior School, Senior School, Hostels, and Annex Building which brought back many memories of the past. Creating Memory Lane was a nostalgic walk through the campus. A sumptuous luncheon was enjoyed by all, during which the 'Library on Wheels'-School's Dream project to be completed was introduced, exciting everyone about the future endeavour.

With the Express Gratitude Session, the event drew to a close which was followed by a patriotic rendition of the National Anthem. A group picture was taken to capture the wonderful treasured moment. The day concluded with High Tea and a Memento of Gratitude was given to all attendees, leaving them with a token of appreciation from the school.

The Alumni Meet was indeed a red letter day in the history of Delhi Public School, Numaligarh, celebrating the bond between the school and its alumni. Everyone present really savoured each moment of the day's proceedings to the fullest with the hope to meet again in the coming years with renewed vigour and delve into the ecstasy of togetherness.

ASSAM DARSHAN

“One's heritage and roots is something to be proud of and cherished”

For the first time since its establishment in the year 1997, an event was organized under the able guidance of our Principal Sri UC Harbola to celebrate our alumni and the pride we have in them. To honour the roots they came from, the Assam Darshan was inaugurated to welcome the alumni with a display of the prowess of the students who carry the torch passed down from the legacy of those who came before while taking the guests through a beautiful journey of Assam's culture, history and tradition, thus melding history, tradition, education and reconnections resulting in a memorable event.

Students from classes VI-IX created various projects reflecting Assam's tradition as their Subject Enrichment Activity. From replicating monuments to meticulously hand-working on creating the 'Saang ghar' of the Mising tribe, the students showcased their calibre and creativity while also expressing their love for their motherland as they worked tirelessly on these projects. Students of class 10 were assigned the task of working on the Assam Darshan, an exhibition showcasing the rich traditions explain its great significance to the guests present in the Alumni meet, of our beloved state, Assam.

CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION

A Day of Joy and Camaraderie at DPS Numaligarh

The day commenced with an Inter-House Dance Competition, where participants showcased their talent and creativity. Among the competing houses, Luit House emerged victorious, winning accolades for their exceptional performance.

The highlight of the day was a special program organized by the teachers to honour the students. The event began with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp, conducted by the Principal, the Headmistress, and key members of the Prefectorial Board. This gesture symbolized the spirit of togetherness and celebration. The program commenced with a soulful prayer song, followed by segments such as the news, a chorus performance, and the thought of the day. However, the most anticipated moment was the dance performances by the teachers, which captivated the audience and left everyone cheering and applauding.

Post the formal program, the excitement shifted to the sports matches. At the volleyball court, the senior girls faced off against the teachers in a spirited match, cheered on by the junior students. Simultaneously, the NRL field hosted a thrilling cricket match between the students and teachers, attended by the senior students. In a show of skill and teamwork, the students emerged victorious in both matches, adding to the day's celebrations. The festive atmosphere was further enhanced by everyone adorning ethnic attire, adding vibrancy and charm to the occasion.

The Children's Day celebration at DPS Numaligarh was a resounding success, a testament to the strong bond between teachers and students. The memories of this day will surely be cherished by all for years to come.

DPS NUMALIGARH FEST

The much awaited Annual Fest of Delhi Public School, Numaligarh was celebrated on 16 November, 2024 with great enthusiasm and vibrant energy, offering a perfect blend of cultural extravaganza, fun-filled activities, and culinary delights. The event was organized to promote the cause of girl child empowerment and gender equality, which carried a powerful social message alongside its joyous celebrations. A fund raising event was organized to sponsor the higher education of needy and meritorious girl children of the neighbouring vicinity. The fest was inaugurated by Principal U.C. Harbola, who cut the ribbon to mark the commencement of the day's events.

The fest began with a potpourri of mesmerizing cultural performances. The group and solo dance performances by the students showcased their talent and hard work, leaving the audience in awe. Another crowd favourite was the Junior Fashion Show, where the little ones walked the ramp with confidence and style, adding charm to the event.

The school campus was transformed into a culinary haven with 25 food stalls offering a variety of ethnic and delicious cuisines right from spicy chats to delectable desserts. These stalls were a collective effort by parents, teachers and students, fostering a sense of community and collaboration.

The highlight of the fest was the Baby Show, which drew the maximum attention. Toddlers from the age group 1- 3 years sashayed down the ramp setting it on fire in their exuberant, colourful attires. The adorable toddlers participating in the event stole everyone's hearts with their cute antics and innocence drawing a huge round of applause from the audience. As a token of love and appreciation, soft toys and surprise gifts were given to all the participants. Adding to the fun, there were various games like Tambola and exciting computer games, providing entertainment for visitors of all ages. The zest and zeal exhibited by the enthusiastic crowd and participants made the fest a memorable one.

The day concluded on a melodious note with captivating performances by a local artist, leaving the audience in high spirits. The DPS Numaligarh Fest was a grand success, providing a platform for students to showcase their talents, promoting community bonding, and creating memories to cherish for years.

LACHIT DIWAS

“Victory is not won by strength alone, but by the courage to stand firm for what is right”

Delhi Public School, Numaligarh celebrated Lachit Diwas on 23rd November with a special assembly to honour one of Assam's greatest freedom fighters, the Ahom general, Veer Lachit Borphukan. This day marks the anniversary of his remarkable victory in the battle of Saraighat in 1671. This day was observed as a No Bag Day where students proudly showcased their heritage, dressed in vibrant ethnic attire. The special assembly featured a variety of exciting performances including a group song performed by the students of classes 4 and 5, a beautiful dance performance to showcase the essence of our history, reflecting the spirit of Lachit Borphukan's bravery and a speech which was delivered by one of the students on the ideals, valour and heroism of Veer Lachit Borphukan. The highlight of the assembly was undoubtedly the ethnic parade presented by the tiny tots of classes 3 to 5 which was aimed at promoting awareness and celebrating the spirit of “Lachit Diwas.”

CCA Results

In the 21st century ever evolving world of education, the role of co-curricular activities has taken center stage, complementing academic learning to nurture well-rounded individuals. At DPS Numaligarh we recognize that true education extends beyond textbooks and classrooms. Our vibrant co-curricular programs provide students with platforms to explore their passions, develop new skills, and build confidence.

From sports and performing arts to debate, quiz, handicrafts and community service, these activities not only foster teamwork and leadership but also encourage creativity, collaborative abilities and critical thinking. They help students discover their strengths, form lifelong friendships, and prepare for real-world challenges.

As the year drew to a close, Luit clinched the 1st Position in the House Rankings having worked hard and performed superbly in multiple competitions through the year while Dihing bagged the Runners Up with an equally commendable performance.

Hostellers celebrate Christmas with merry making and Bonfire

The students of the DPSN hostel made merry on the 14th of December as a pre Christmas celebration. As the festive season brought with it the winds of winter, our students huddled together at the bonfire to sing, perform a skit and celebrate the monthly Birthday Celebration with the spirit of holiday cheer and bonhomie warming hands and hearts alike.

ANNUAL DAY Celebration 2024

On the 7th of December, DPS Numaligarh came together to honour the achievements and talents of the students and to celebrate the spirit of the school community which came together to celebrate the bonds that unite us and the strength we find in our diversity on the 27th Annual Day of the school. The theme for the Annual Day was the Bridge of Unity. The theme, "Bridge of Unity," reminds us that despite our differences in culture, background, and perspective, it is the connections we build that make us stronger and more resilient. To mark the start of the evening the respected Principal, dignitaries and guests were called upon to light the ceremonial lamp, signifying the spread of light and knowledge and a prayer was said to thank Lord Ganesha for a fruitful year and to seek his blessings for a glorious and successful evening ahead.

The school was honoured to have Dr Bidyut Chandan Deka, Vice Chancellor, Assam Agricultural University, Jorhat, who had kindly consented to be the Chief Guest of the evening. The school was also privileged to have, Shri Bhaskar Jyoti Phukan, Managing Director, Numaligarh Refinery Limited and Dr Kajal Saikia, Chief General Manager, HR and Legal and Pro Vice Chairman, Delhi Public School, Numaligarh as Guests of Honour. The guests were presented with a Phoolam Gamusa, a chest badge and a sapling by the Head Boy, Vishal K Jha and Head Girl Akshita Bagaria.

The evening began with the performance of LITTLE PATRIOTS, BIG HEARTS BY PRE-PRIMARY Students to celebrate the spirit of patriotism through the eyes of the young and talented students. The performance by the little patriots was a tribute to India's beauty, diversity and unity showcasing their big hearts and even bigger dreams for our nation.

The evening continued with an enchanting dance performance showcasing the rich cultural heritage of Rajasthan, Maharashtra, Gujarat and Punjab by the youngest stars from classes 1, 2 and 3 who brought boundless energy and innocence to the stage. This performance was extra special because it celebrated inclusivity and the spirit of togetherness as the Children with Special Needs (CWSN) joined in the dance, reminding us that every child has a unique light to shine.

Overwhelming elation swept the school as the Prize Distribution Ceremony began. The Prizes were awarded to acknowledge the star performers of the school for the session 2023-24.

The collective hard work and dedication of the students, teachers and staff have resulted in a year of extraordinary achievements. Head Boy Vishal Jha and Head Girl Akshita Bagaria presented an account of the various events and achievements that have shaped this remarkable year in the eagerly awaited School Annual Report.

The school magazine is a reflection of the creativity, talent, and hard work of our students and teachers, capturing the essence of our vibrant school community. The honoured guests, the Principal and Headmistress came up to the stage and released the 27th edition of the school annual magazine 'A Child's World' coordinated by Mrs. Shilpi Hazarika along with her Editorial team, burnt the midnight oil and worked tirelessly to bring the magazine to life.

As the celebration continued 'Sur Ke Ghungroo' a dance that celebrates the essence of a love that unites and elevates was performed, inspired by the one who embodies eternal love – Lord Krishna.

Following the beautiful dance performance, the Guest of honour Shri Bhaskar Jyoti Phukan was called upon to address the gathering. His words enlightened the young minds with wise and motivational words to excel and strive for perfection in every action and thought.

The Long Service Award was awarded to two dedicated teachers, Ms Pinky Khound and Mr Matthew Joseph for 20 years of excellent service to this institution.

The CSR Award which is dedicated to a cause that is crucial and transformative—promoting girl child education as part of the school's CSR initiative to promote Girl Child education was given to 4 meritorious girls from underprivileged backgrounds. A sum of 10,000 rupees was awarded to each girl.

Chief Guest Dr Bidyut Chandan Deka addressed the gathering following which Principal UC Harbola presented a token of gratitude and appreciation to felicitate Dr Deka and esteemed Guest of Honour Shri Bhaskar Jyoti Phukan.

To honour and celebrate the spirit of unity to continue building bridges, the most awaited Hommonoyor Xetu (Bridge of Unity), a tribute to the timeless unity that shaped Assam was performed at the end, rounding off the evening with a beautiful message of unity paired with grace.

DPS Teacher-Composer's music reaches Portugal

Our school takes immense pride in announcing that the theme song for the Brahmaputra Volleyball League was composed by our talented music teacher, Ankur Debnath. This vibrant title track was showcased at the prestigious November 2024 Volleyball Summit in Portugal, where it represented the spirit and energy of the Brahmaputra Volleyball League team. The music has received widespread appreciation for its dynamic rhythm and cultural essence, truly making it a moment of honour for us all.
